4 Light Pendant

This vintage, Old-World design adds substance and dimension to traditional decor. With its twisted metalwork, the Tudor 4-light pendant quietly evokes the charm of a bygone era. The hand-crafted square metal cage has an aged wrought iron look that was inspired by the grandeur of the Spanish Revival. Graceful candelabras glow inside a classic cage to add a subtle touch of sophistication. The application of the complex antique black iron finish, with its rustic gold highlights, enhances the feel of casual elegance.
